News & Notes—April 2017

Library Sage says...

...that National Astronomy Day is Saturday, April 29th! The Clovis Astronomy Club will have a telescope set up in the parking lot, 1:30-3:30 pm, for daytime viewing. They will return again at 6:30 pm for nighttime stargazing.

Astronomy books can be found in all levels of non-fiction beginning in the 520s.
